OPEN HOUSE AND TECHNOLOGY FORUM

Friday, October 19, 2001

8:30–9:00  Registration and Refreshments  (3-178 EE/CS Building)

9:00–9:30  Opening Session  (3-180 EE/CS Building)
H. Ted Davis,  Dean, Institute of Technology
Chris Maziar,  Vice President for Research
Pen-Chung Yew,  Head, Computer Science & Engineering

9:30–11:30  Industrial & Research Exhibits, Networking  (2nd & 3rd floors EE/CS Building)
An opportunity to view enabling technologies

11:30–1:15  Lunch  (Humphrey Room, Radisson Hotel)

1:30–2:20  Interactive Session One  (3-180 EE/CS Building)
“Medical Technology Software: When Life Depends on Your Programs”

PANELISTS
Lynn Ihlenfeldt,  Vice President, Product Development, Minnetronix
Greg Linden,  Director, System Strategy and Architecture, Cardiac Rhythm Patient Management, Medtronic

2:30–3:20  Interactive Session Two  (3-180 EE/CS Building)
“Privacy: Is There Any Hope?”

PANELISTS
Laura Gurak,  Director, U of M Center for Internet Studies
Jaideep Srivastava,  Professor of Computer Science and Engineering

3:30–4:30  Keynote Address  (3-210 EE/CS Building)
William Pulleyblank,  Director, Deep Computing Institute, IBM

4:45–6:30  Wine and Cheese Reception  (Ski-U-Mah Room, McNamara Alumni Center)

For more information, see www.cs.umn.edu/open-house/schedule.html.